

5/10/17

AYLOR MIDDLE SCHOOL, WHERE LEARNING COMES FIRST.....

BIRTHDAYS - Kaytlyn Gregory and Bond Igbinosa.

TRACK - Our next track meet will be this afternoon at 4:00 at James Wood High School. We have another track meet this Saturday, 5/13 at 9am at Handley High School.

8TH GRADE DANCE - Tickets for the 8th grade dance will be on sale through this Friday outside of Ms. Trout's room for $5. They WILL NOT be sold at the door. Remember that you must have a signed contract and meet the behavior requirements in order to attend. Pictures will be available for purchase at the dance for $5 for an 8x10, $3 for a 5x7 and $2 for a 4x6. ONLY AYLOR 8TH GRADERS MAY ATTEND THE DANCE AND YOU MUST ATTEND THE WHOLE SCHOOL DAY IN ORDER TO GO (NO LEAVING EARLY).

TSA - We will stay after school until 3:45 tomorrow.

CONGRATULATIONS - Congratulations to 8th grader Josh Hartley who was recognized on Monday evening by the Optimist Club for Outstanding Student Achievement. Josh was nominated by his 8th grade teachers for this honor and attended a banquet at the George Washington Hotel. Josh was one of four students recognized from the 4 middle schools in Frederick County.

FFA - Aylor FFA will be holding our 48th Annual Awards program on Friday, May 19th at 6:30pm in the cafeteria. This event is open to any FFA member and student who has taken ag this year. A meal will be served consisting of roast beef or chicken, mac and cheese, green beans, salad, assorted desserts, tea and lemonade.

ACCENTS STAFF MEETING - The next Accents staff meeting will be Monday, May 15 in Dr. Brown's room until 3:45. Please have your rides pick you up outside the main entrance out front. See Dr. Brown if you have any questions.

Accents Magazine is still accepting student writing and artwork. Prizes are given for the best prose, poetry, and artwork. Give it to your English teacher, Mrs. Norris or put in the folder outside Dr. Brown's room. Make sure your name is on it. You can even share it electronically - just make sure you email Dr. Brown so she knows you have shared it.

There is also a cover contest. Design a cover that reflects Aylor spirit and student creativity. The name of the magazine and the school year must be part of the design. They must be done in dark pencil or black ink. There is a cash prize as well as having your design on the cover of the magazine. All entries can be given to Dr. Brown or Mrs. Norris. See Dr. Brown if you have questions. Cover entries are due by May 19.